ROCK & BREWS CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING AT AT&T CENTER TODAY Rock Icon And Co-Founding Partner Paul Stanley Sings National Anthem At Spurs-Lakers Game

EL SEGUNDO, CALIF. (December 11, 2015) –Rock & Brews, the family-friendly, rock-inspired restaurant co-founded by Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons of KISS, celebrates its grand opening today at AT&T Center in San Antonio, the restaurant’s first location in Texas. In honor of the occasion, Stanley will sing the National Anthem before the San Antonio Spurs take on the Los Angeles Lakers.

Located on the west side of the Plaza level, Rock & Brews is part of the $110 million renovations to AT&T Center. The energized, indoor/outdoor dining and entertainment concept serves quality American comfort food and a wide selection of craft and international beers in an environment celebrating rock and roll with concert lighting; rock-themed art, including artwork paying tribute to the great concerts that have taken place at the Center; and, a ceiling dedicated to some of the biggest names in rock history. Multiple screens show rock videos and major sporting events.

“We spend a lot of time performing in large venues while on tour, and we are proud to be part of the AT&T Center renovations to enhance the fan experience,” said Paul Stanley. “We have performed at AT&T Center and now look forward to rocking sports and entertainment fans with our broad selection of international and craft beers, quality American comfort food and local favorites.”

Stanley and Simmons, along with co-founding partners restaurateur/hotelier Michael Zislis and concert industry veterans Dave and Dell Furano, are thoughtfully planning for worldwide expansion of the brand with freestanding restaurants, airport locations and venue concessions.
