CELEBRATING COMPLETION OF LAX TERMINAL 1 PHASE ONE IMPROVEMENTS
Rock Icons To Open The Second Rock & Brews Restaurant At LAX In Partnership With Crews

Los Angeles (March 1, 2016) – With the first Rock & Brews restaurant at Los Angeles International Airport Terminal 5 boasting the highest sales per square foot of any restaurant at the airport, KISS front men Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons are celebrating the opening of the second Rock & Brews at LAX in partnership with Crews today. The grand opening of the new restaurant, located in Southwest's Terminal 1, marks the completion of phase 1 improvements at the terminal, which is undergoing a $508 million renovation.

The rock icons and their Rock & Brews co-founding partners Michael Zislis and Dave and Dell Furano, along with airport restaurant & retail giants Crews and Westfield, are hosting an official ribbon cutting and reception at Rock & Brews as part of the celebration today which includes a chance for guests to “rock” about the terminal and explore all of the new offerings, which include Be Relax; Brookstone; I Love LA; SOL Surf; and Treat Me Sweet.

“We are excited and proud to introduce Rock & Brews to Terminal 1 travelers,” said Stanley and Simmons in a joint statement. “Through our partnership with Crews, Westfield, Southwest Airlines and Los Angeles World Airports, we are thrilled to be a part of the terminal’s impressive improvements.”

Rock & Brews debuted in 2012 with its first restaurant in El Segundo, California. Today, the brand has 15 locations in the United States and Mexico and is poised for thoughtful expansion worldwide with freestanding restaurants, sports and entertainment venues, and airport concepts.

“We are pleased that Rock & Brews is now serving departing and arriving guests in Terminal 1,” said Robert Crews, president and CEO of Crews. “What better way to kick off or conclude their travels than with quality Rock & Brews food and a beer?”

“Rock & Brews has brought a palpable new excitement, energy and attitude to Southwest Airlines customers in Terminal 1,” said Keith Kaplan, Westfield's Vice President at LAX. “Along with our partners at LAWA and Southwest, we're proud of this important milestone in our transformation of the customer experience at LAX and Terminal 1.”

Rock & Brews offers both dine in and “Grab and Go” service. Travelers on the run can pick up a rockin’ meal to go from the Rock & Brews’ “Grab and Go” section, while guests with time to spare can enjoy a sit-down meal, selecting from an array of signature dishes including various breakfast items, salads, pizzas, sandwiches, burgers and entrees, as well as a wide range of craft beers, in the rock-inspired environment.

Rock & Brews at Terminal 1 is open from 5 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily.
